Cylchlythyr – Newsletter – 26.01.2024

Dear parents and carers,

It has been a very strange week seeing everything going on in school from South Wales whilst I have been undertaking an Estyn inspection with colleagues. A huge array of activities have been taking place whilst I have been away including our annual F1 in Schools school competition. This event provides opportunity for pupils to develop so many skills and is always an important part of our school calendar.

With this being such a short half term, we have a lot of fit in and pupils are working very hard across all classes. We continue to use our daily wellbeing check in with pupils and unfortunately a lot of pupils are reporting arriving at school being tired due to using electronic devices. Where this is the case on a regular basis, we will be making contact home to offer support and guidance around sleep routines. We are also increasing contact where children arrive at school late regularly or where we have attendance concerns. Your engagement and support in these areas is greatly appreciated!

Diolch, Mr Hatwood.

Website and Communication

We are always exploring ways to improve communication at school and hope that things such as our social media, newsletters and Class Dojo are useful. We maintain an up to date calendar which can be synced to phones and will shortly be implementing a text message system to support school in communication further. Our new website will also be going live over the coming days!

Expressive Arts – Year 3-4

Expressive Arts lessons will focus on the artist and environmentalist, John Dyer as part of the current unit of work. This week, pupils found out about the artist and created a fact file all about him. Pupils are excited to put some of our questions to John in the next few weeks.

Numbers and Number Lines – Year 3/4

To help with pupils' knowledge and understanding of the temperatures in the rainforests, pupils have been learning how to find the difference between numbers using a number line.

We look forward to seeing them put this numeracy work into action to help them understand the temperatures and range of temperatures in the rainforests they are studying!

Urdd - Blwyddyn 5

Year 5 had a great session with Guto from the Urdd this week. Pupils developed their Welsh language skills through team games. We look forward to seeing pupils use these games in the future and take them out into the playground with them and when they visit Glan Llyn in coming weeks.

Careers and Work Related Education

As part of the Curriculum for Wales it is important that all pupils learn about careers available within certain sectors. All year groups will focus on introducing careers within their topic lessons. To make this authentic, we would like to ask parents / carers if they would be willing to talk to children about their career or job role and what it entails.

If you would be willing to share your experiences with the children about your role, please complete the following questionnaire. If you know someone else who might be able to help, please can you share the following link:

Attendance and Punctuality

We are now tracking punctuality using the electronic sign in system and have written to parents/carers where concerns exist. There are some causes for concern emerging with regard to attendance and punctuality and we will be convening meetings with the Attendance Officer to support in these cases.
