Cylchlythyr – Newsletter – 10.10.2025

Dear parents and carers,

We have enjoyed a creative theme to our work this week, with parents and carers welcomed to school to take part in our Expressive Arts Workshops. We hope that those who were able to attend enjoyed the sessions and found them beneficial. I would like to thank our team for planning and delivering these workshops in addition to their usual teaching commitment and provision of extra-curricular contributions. I am incredibly fortunate to lead such a dedicated team who go above and beyond regularly for the benefit of your children.

We have further sessions planned in the New Year in other curricular areas, please do subscribe to our school website calendar for further details, and to ensure you keep up to date with school plans and activities.

Could we please ask for your support in ensuring all clothing is labelled, so that we are able to match any missing items of clothing to owners. Thank you for your support in this matter.

Next week, we have our Harvest Service on Wednesday 15th October which is being led by our Year 3 & 4 pupils.

This will start at 9.30am in Church, and you are very welcome to join us for this very special service.

We hope you have a lovely weekend.

Diolch, Mr Hatwood
