Promoting team learning and collaboration among all staff.

- Staff reflect together on how to make their own learning more powerful.
- Staff learn how to work together as a team.
- Staff feel comfortable seeking advice from each other.

- To ensure that staff are sharing good practice in staff meetings.
- Direct staff to the QR code to log staff learning.
- If staff have been on training, they are to share the highlights in staff meetings or via email / Teams.
- Smaller teaching teams have strong working relationships, but this is not always the case in the wider team due to time, location and the work done together. Have more training events together as a whole staff or deliberately mix people to strengthen more bonds.
- Provide more opportunities for subject leaders to work together.
- Timetable opportunities for other staff members to contribute to TA meetings rather than just SMT to share their skills and knowledge.

Establishing a culture of enquiry, innovation and exploration.

- Staff are willing to take risks and experiment and innovate their practice.
- The school supports and recognises staff for taking initiative and risks.
- Problems and failures are seen as opportunities for learning.

- More opportunities to observe other teachers in same and other settings who use a wide range of teaching ideas.
- More training for staff in forest school and outdoor learning opportunities.
- Scientific approach to investigations, children taking responsibility for what and how they investigate.
- Opportunities for staff to share learning initiatives e.g. feedback on courses to share ideas and what has been learned.
- Making use of risk assessments to give staff the security of risk taking in the learning.
- Observations that encourage and enhance the learning intentions, failures and issues are given as training and development for the teacher/TA.
- Culture that problems are the way to grow and learn throughout the school. It is good to get things wrong to learn what is right.
